

Dear Partner!

We are gratefully thankful that you've decided to write for our blog!

All well-known bloggers respect the platform where they are being published. And we are sure you are one of them! Also, it is very important to create informative and useful content.

We both want our readers to enjoy the article, right?

That is why we created these simple, but strict rules that can help you receive great feedback!

- There are some preferred article subjects, so it's best to discuss the topic with us before you start writing it. (We mostly recommend everything connected to Affiliate Marketing more specifically CPA Marketing)
- You can format your text with proper HTML tags
- Your post may include no more than 1 link to your website or blog. 1 more link and social contacts are allowed in your bio. You may link to credible relevant resources within the body of the content
- The minimum post length that we will accept is 1000 words
- Send the images you want to include in the article
- Send us a photo of you and short bio that we will include in the article

Let's open new horizons TOGETHER!
